FAMILY ENRICHMENT PROGRAM

This program's purpose is to assist in personal and Family preparedness to enhance the quality of life in our Community, through education.

Army Family Action Plan (AFAP)

AFAP identifies and recommends solutions to Soldier and Family generated issues that affect the quality of life of the total Army Family.

Army Family Team Building (AFTB) Training

Three levels of training focusing on preparedness and education for all of America's Army (active, reserve and retired Soldiers, DA civilians, and Family Members).

Army 101

Familiarizes Fort Carson's civilian partners on topics such as rank, command structure, acronyms, how to recognize TBI/PTSB, and ACS services.

Commander & First Sergeant Spouse Course

Prepares CDR/1SG Spouses on the unique challenges they may face in a leadership role.

MOBILIZATION & DEPLOYMENT READINESS

Provides assistance for active duty, Reserve and National Guard Soldiers and their Families throughout the ARFORGEN cycle.

Pre-Deployment Training

Trains units that are preparing to deploy, the process of deployment and the challenges that may arise.

Rear Detachment Training

Trains Rear-D personnel on handling challenges that may arise during deployment. Focus is on the FRGs, problem solving, and community resources.

Family Readiness Group (FRG) Leader Training

Trains FRG leadership to set-up, maintain, and handle challenges within the FRG IAW AR 608-1, Appendix J.

FRG Key Caller Training

Trains FRG Key Callers how to perform duties, and handle crisis phone calls.

FRG Treasurer Training

Teaches FRGs how to properly manage funds, audits, and fundraisers IAW DA 608-1, Appendix J.

Family Resilience Training

Focuses on five dimensions of strength: emotional, spiritual, social, family and physical; to enhance Families mental fitness.

Reunion Training

Trains Spouses awaiting their Soldiers return on how to open the lines of communication after an extended separation.

Reintegration Training University

Trains returning units IAW the Deputy Chief of Staff Checklist, to help Soldiers and Families in the transitioning process. *Available online with Command approval.

Military Family Life Consultants (MFLC)

Mental health professionals trained in military Family specific topics that assist with problem solving and life skills.

Consultations are confidential with exceptions of mandatory report situations.

Unit Service Coordinator Program (USC)

Assigns units a POC within the ACS organization to assist Leaders in navigating the programs and services ACS offers.
