GET READY TO RODEO!

STREET BREAKFAST June 20, 2012, 5:30-9:30 a.m.
Pikes Peak & Tejon, Downtown Colorado Springs

The 52nd Colorado Springs Street Breakfast is the official send-off of 160 riders for the Pikes Peak Range Ride. The breakfast is prepared and served by Fort Carson volunteers. The $5.00 breakfast includes eggs, pancakes, milk, coffee, and juice and is free to children under five. All proceeds from the breakfast go to benefit local military charities.

PIKES PEAK OR BUST RODEO DAYS PARADE July 10, 6:30 p.m.
from St. Vrain to Vermijo, Downtown Colorado Springs

Bring the whole family to this hometown event. It is FREE to attend, and you'll enjoy seeing floats from local military service units, area businesses and attractions, our own Girls of the West, vintage cars, bands, equestrian groups, and MORE!

PIKES PEAK OR BUST RODEO is one of the top rodeos in the country and features all the action-packed favorites such as bull riding, bareback bronc riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing, steer wrestling, wild cow milking, and mutton bustin.' Don't miss a minute of the action!
