Battalion Commander's Welcome Letter

Congratulations on your assignment to the 440th Civil Affairs Battalion! On behalf of the entire command team, I would like to welcome you to the finest battalion in the United States Army Civil Affairs and Psychological Operations Command (Airborne), USACAPOC(A).

Located on Fort Carson, at the base of the majestic Rocky Mountains, you will be joining an elite group of civil affairs professionals and have access to the finest training facilities in the United States Army. Your time in our unit will afford you numerous opportunities to experience and enjoy all that Army Civil Affairs has to offer.

The battalion is specialized in and primarily focused on the Indo-Pacific region, but it is prepared to deploy in support of operational missions worldwide. If you have not completed the Civil Affairs Qualification Course, you will find the pipeline to be both challenging and rewarding. It is the key to opening the incredible possibilities offered as a member of the Civil Affairs Regiment and you will be expected to complete your training in your first year in the unit. Once qualified by the JFK Special Warfare Center and School, you can expect to regularly support missions and exercises from Thailand and Malaysia to Fiji and the Philippines and everywhere in between.

We are committed to doing everything we can to satisfy your expectations for professional growth and advancement. Come prepared with your sense of adventure, commitment, and motivation. Whether this is your first or your last assignment, I am confident this will be an incredibly rewarding experience.

Again, congratulations on your upcoming assignment and we look forward to welcoming you to the 440th Civil Affairs team. Reach out to my Supervisory Staff Administrator Mr. Rick Molina at ricci.molina.civ@mail or 719-524-5036 if you have any questions.
