Unit History

The 1st Stryker Brigade Combat Team is comprised of seven subordinate units including: 2nd Squadron, 1st Cavalry Regiment; the 1st Battalion, 38th Infantry Regiment; the 2nd Battalion, 23rd Infantry Regiment; 4th Battalion, 9th Infantry Regiment; 2nd Battalion, 12th Field Artillery Regiment; the 299th Engineer Battalion; and 4th Brigade Support Battalion.

The "Raider" Brigade, 4th Infantry Division was constituted Nov. 19, 1917, in the Regular Army as Headquarters Troop, 4th Division.

The unit participated in World War I and was involved in numerous campaigns including Aisne-Marne, St. Mihiel, Meuse-Argonne, Champagne, and Lorraine.

It reorganized July 6, 1942, as Headquarters Company, 4th Division in preparation for the initial assault into Normandy.

Following the end of the Second World War, the unit was inactivated March 12, 1946, at Camp Butner, N.C.

The Raider Brigade served in Vietnam operating in numerous operations and counteroffensives. On Oct. 15, 1995, the brigade inactivated at Fort Carson, Colo., but was reactivated at Fort Hood, Texas Jan. 16, 1996.

The Raider Brigade was reorganized and re-designated as the 1st Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division in 2004. Since 2003 the Raider Brigade has deployed three times in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom, and twice in support of Operation Enduring Freedom in both Afghanistan and Kuwait.

The brigade has received numerous campaign participation credits, including Meuse-Argonne During World War I; Tet Counteroffensive in Vietnam; Pleiku Province in Korea, and Iraqi Governance as part of Operation Iraqi Freedom to name a few. A few of its more prestigious decorations include two Presidential Unit Citations, the Valorous Unit Award, the Army superior unit award, the Republic of Vietnam Cross of Gallantry with Palm, and the Belgian Fourragere.

Housing Information

Single Soldier Housing Office: 719-526-9709

The Single Soldier Housing Office (SSHO) is located in building 1454 on Nelson Boulevard. The Directorate of Public Works (DPW) Housing Division manages the SSHO. Unit leaders continue to lead Soldiers who live in the barracks. Unit leaders continue to be responsible for good order and discipline. The SSHO augments unit leaders by managing the barracks. Single Soldiers and unit leaders should contact the SSHO with questions associated with the barracks and call the SSHO to submit service requests for room repairs.
