Fort Carson, City of Colorado Springs plan special Independence Day tribute

FORT CARSON, Colo. – Fort Carson and the 4th Infantry Division, in cooperation with the city of Colorado Springs and several other community organizations, have planned a Black Hawk helicopter flyover from approximately 6:55-8 p.m. Saturday.

The flyover is a special Independence Day tribute to honor the military men and women, past and present, who have served our country.

The flyover route will include the following areas: Switchbacks Football Club, Banning Lewis Ranch, Falcon Freedom Days at Meridian Ranch, the Club at Flying Horse, Garden of the Gods, Patty Jewett Golf Course, the Broadmoor, Country Club of Colorado at Cheyenne Mountain Resort, the Broadmoor Shrine and Fort Carson.

Fort Carson and the City of Colorado Springs will also provide fireworks displays to residents across El Paso County. Community members are encouraged to enjoy the displays from home in order to stay healthy while celebrating the birth of our nation.

For more information contact the Fort Carson Public Affairs Office at (719) 526-4143/7525. After hours please contact the 24-hour Fort Carson Operations Center at (719) 526-5500 and ask for the On-Call Public Affairs Officer.
